"My goal for every camper is well defined. For the younger players, I want to ensure that they have a clear understanding of the fundamentals of the game in order to assist them in their development. For the more advanced travel players, my goal is to expose them to a higher caliber of instruction and give them the tools to refine their game. I believe that having fun and learning to love the game, combined with proper fundamentals and mechanics, will lead to a lifelong passion for the great American pastime of baseball."-Coach Yorke
